

That's a legitimate question, and it's good to know you don't call me names right off the bat. A simple understanding of the true economics of Hungary, and the basics of economics in general, a true understanding of Christianity and the promotion of something the Orbán government calls Christianity, a true understanding of the true relationship between George Soros and the Orbán administration – even a cursory understanding of these issues and a cursory ability to separate the facts from fiction would reveal this magic show in all its glory, but since you asked, I'll try to answer this loaded question in brief without taking weeks to link this – it can be compared to a sophisticated murder trial – even though it is clear who the culprit is, collecting all of that evidence and following its trail is tedious and time-consuming, but I'll try one more time, since I lost the info. I've already posted. I've had all the text professionally translated into Hungarian, and I am not organized enough to find the original English versions, but the information is there.

Péter Szijjártó: In the election process we had numerous attempts at foreign influence. – My response, Ok, that's true, and every nation has that, but what every nation does not have is the crying of the "unfairness of the Treaty of Trianon" to the extent that Orbán's government, with a huge Hungarian block of supporters, voted to allow all those Hungarians who lost their Hungary (which is different than losing their land, and even still wouldn't matter) to become citizens. As a result, Hungarians who recently became citizens outside of Hungary voted in the Hungarian election: from Austria, Czechoslovakia, Romania, and Yugoslavia. Orbán Viktor's votes were I think 2.6 million, 1.5 million were of foreign origin. I have French, Russian, Polish, and a few other nationalities, and with this mindset, I should be able to vote for those countries too, or at least the Hungarians living in Hungary should get a fair shake and be able to vote in those other countries.

Péter Szijjártó: Actors tried to weaken the government. – My response: Orbán Viktor spent 40 billion forints on the Stop Soros campaign. How much of it was of his own personal wealth? Zero, or thereabouts? How much was of the people's hard earned money? All of it, or thereabouts. Now, Orbán and Soros go back a long, long ways. Orbán even got a scholarship from Soros and started his political career with him (It's kinda like Obama (aka Mr. Zero) starting his political career with Bill Ayers): <https://mno.hu/belfold/rengeteg-penz-kapott-sorostol-a-fidesz-es-szemelyesen-orban-2394655#> / https://index.hu/belfold/2018/04/18/schmidt_maria_soros_osztondijas/#. Your user name looks interesting, perhaps Russian or Ukrainian? If you don't know Hungarian, the google translator will probably give you an idea. Orbán is very predictable and my last question on this matter is, how much did Soros earn on the anti-Soros campaign? More questions – the list of questions is endless - Why did it take so long for Soros to leave Hungary (same reasons why it took so long for the leftists (which included the NAZIS) – to throw the Nazis under the bus and declare that somehow they are right wing, which they are not! : (first vid and pdf – America's True form of Government): <http://www.mediaaccess.hu/index.php?module=sourcepage&id=440&lang=1>

I've lost about 100,000 dollars to the MSZP and Fidesz government via way of the Foreign Currency banking fraud loans that were dished out and supported by those parties and others, who knew well that the whole thing was a scam. Some of what was involved can be viewed on my webpage. Much of it is in Hungarian, and some in English:

This is how much Orbán has stolen from his own people. I am campaigning against this corruption in my small little way with brochures, but I haven't put them on the internet. The information is useful, but here's Orbán's personal wealth. This is just one guy in the administration.

Orbán V. Vagyona 1800-2000 milliárd forint+Svájci és offshore bankszámlák. Milliárdokat loptak el elsősorban az EU-tól kapott közpénzből. Orbán's favorite political leaders are Putin and Erdogan (this is what he has said). His political affiliation is 'illiberal democracy'. It can easily be googled. AND the USA is a REPUBLIC, NOT A DEMOCRACY, which is in and of itself evil. All of the US founding fathers new this.

ALL OF ORBÁN'S POLICIES WILL TURN HUNGARY INTO A MUSLIM COUNTRY – ALL OF THEM:

>Csupán Orbán szocialista és korrupciós politikája szerint Magyarország Muszlim ország lesz! A számok nem hazudnak.

2017 statisztika

- 91.616 elveszületés
- 128.988 elhalálozás

Ellenorzése Ágazatok és Jogosultsági

A korrupció helyrehozhatatlan

„A munka szabaddá tesz” – ezt írták a náci táborok vaskapujára.

„A munka, becsület” – ezt pedig a szovjet táborokéra.

„A demokrácia a szocializmus felé vezet.”

- Karl Marx

„Az illiberális demokrácia az, amikor nem a liberálisok vannak hatalmon.”

- Fidesz

De ez nem helyes! „A korlátolt demokrácia, más néven hibrid rendszer, egy olyan kormányzati rendszer, amelyben bár vannak választások, a polgárok mégsem tudják mit cselekednek azok, akik gyakorolják a hatalmat a polgári szabadságok hiánya miatt.” - ami egészen más dolog!

Just like Tommy Robinson being arrested for reporting the facts about Muslim migration, we in Hungary face similar persecution exposing the lies.

Hungary brought in about 1300 Muslims just last month (April 2018). They have been bringing in Muslims from the beginning. It's called creeping Shariah, but I call it flooding Shariah. There were about 10,000 Muslims coming through Hungary every single day during the summer of 2015. Do you think they all disappeared? Is Orbán really that short-sighted, or does he have a political agenda for waiting? He also works with Erdogan!

Summary: If you like Socialism (aka communism), if you like big government, if you don't believe in the USA's original intent of a constitution, if you like corruption, if you like magic shows, if you like little people and small governments, if you don't believe in term limits for politicians, if you like dictators, if you like the consolidation of everything in your life controlled by the government: hospitals, schools, maternity leave, retirement, and the list is huge enough, if you like the government spending your money on football stadiums and a slew of staff (twice that of that Romanian dictator Nicolae Ceaușescu), and ping pong players, and water polo, if you don't like to keep your own money, and if you don't like compassion for others ('cause socialism kills compassion), and don't like ambition, if you don't like your Hungarian roots and Hungarian girls ('cause they are fading into the oblivion of time), if you like Muslims (this is not a typo), and if you like Soros (this is not a typo), and the EU (this is not a typo), then, I can see why you praise Orbán.

Let me finish this summary with one last example. If I needed to borrow money from you and you lent it to me day after day and year after year, even though you know I could never pay it back, and even though I call you an idiot and numerous other expletives, would you still lend me those things I ask for? Not on your life! But this is the relationship Orbán has with the EU, Merkel, and a host of others. When Orbán first started his political career he promised never to do business with the Russians, but we are so in debt to them now. Why the change of heart? Watch the magic show and see the tricks. First principles of basic economics: the retirement, the Csok program (free money for having children), the Erzsébet Program, and on and on. That's all I have time for, but I truly hope it helps.
