(Follow the Money!)

The Budapest Beacon Yea, great empirical evidence. Next time I go to court, I'm going to just tell the judge to look at my opponent's face, he looks stupid, so he must be, or just insane. You do still have the link to the pdf, don't you? You at least made an attempt to read it didn't you? You marked it as spam because you refuse the evidence. You are not liberals, but communists. Your agenda is clear. Read the pdf, tell me what's wrong about it. NO, what is insane is defending CEU, what is insane is pretending to be mathematicians without being able to do the math, a lawyer, without being able to debate, a reporter, without being able to report the facts without conjuring up a false, biased premise - that is what is insane -. and pretending it's innocent, and pretending you are a news organization when you are only a hack of fake-ism. And then you have an EU judge and politician (didn't save his name) that high tails it out of here because he can't do politics with a straight face. That guy asked me a one word question (I don't think he was Hungarian), 'Why?' (Do I feel that CEU should be out of Hungary). I gave him my answer - ALWAYS with empirical evidence, and he just vanishes into thin air. He doesn't care about the truth!) There are of course a lot of problems with Orbán too, but that's another issue. My brother called Chris insane - said Trump had a 1/7 chance of winning. He's a fake news reader and spreader of fraudulent fake gobbledygook, like you, is all. Hey, we screen shot your comment - gonna be sharing that too - make you more famous. My website has more than 1500 pages - interesting stuff - lots of conspiracy FACTS - NOT theories, but some theories too. Study and learn. Ever hear of empirical evidence? Most of it is relevant to your agenda, some of it is just interesting, but ALL of it is educational. 'Don't let your studies get in the way of your education.' Libs are lazy, that's why they're libs. They pretend to care, but they only care in self.

Chris Dias The Budapest Beacon Well, I can't answer your first question, but when I was researching the Megasztár scam of 2008 and beyond I went undercover - by the way, I'm the only one in this country who reported on it - in fact, I got the Király Tamás/Viktor/Linda family kicked out of Eurovision more than once, Caramel, Radics Gigi, and in fact, the latest was Viktor from the Voice in the USA.

The Budapest Beacon: Well, I can't answer your first question, but when we were researching the Megasztár scam of 2008 and beyond we went undercover - by the way, I'm the only one in this country who reported on it - in fact, I got the Király Tamás/Viktor/Linda family kicked out of Eurovision more than once, Caramel, Radics Gigi, and in fact, the latest was Viktor from the Voice in the USA. (Those links are on my front page.) I already wrote about the money, but you would know that if you read what I'd already sent you. But liberals (libtards is a bit more accurate, aka communists or for the more politically correct, socialists, or for the even more politically correct, progressives (you can see the Ant & the Termite video and pdf for a briefing on that topic on my website)) are lazy - that's why they think the way they do (includes Ted Cruz supporters, Orbán supporters, MSZP, KDNP, Jobbik, and LMP). So, while I was doing that research (cost me 3 thousand dollars to translate it to Hungarian - I can read Hungarian, but it's not at all good enough to write text professionally) - and 8 years of research. I wasn't planning at all to load my website up with so many links and pages, but my students would come in with these crazy ideas, and although I argued with them using facts and empirical evidence, I didn't have that info. on hand, so my website has become what it is, but is mostly for students who know me, or for me to be able to show my position when blogging (which is based on facts, almost exclusively) with relative ease. I'm not disrespectful to anyone who isn't to me, but I'll hit back hard if they do it to me:
