

What happened to Hitler's sperm?

1. Review of Logic (Just for Szekeres Gábor - ☺):

*In deductive reasoning, you'll often make an argument for a certain idea. You make an inference, or come to a conclusion, by applying different premises. A premise is a generally accepted idea, fact, or rule, and it's a statement that lays the groundwork for a theory or general idea.

- All dogs have ears; golden retrievers are dogs, therefore they have ears.
- All racing cars must go over 80MPH; the Dodge Charger is a racing car, therefore it can go over 80MPH.

*Inductive reasoning is a method of reasoning in which a general principle is derived from a body of observations.

- For example, if you review the population information of a city for the past 15 years, you may observe a consistent rate of population increase. If you want to predict what the population might be in five years, you can use the evidence or information you have to make an estimate. This is inductive reasoning.

*Abductive reasoning typically begins with an incomplete set of observations and proceeds to the likeliest possible explanation for the set. Abductive reasoning yields the kind of daily decision-making that does its best with the information at hand, which often is incomplete.

- Abductive reasoning, also known as “inference to the best explanation” is a form of logical reasoning that looks to the most likely hypothesis to explain something.
  - When I went outside this morning, the grass was completely covered with dew. It must have rained last night.
  - The waitress must have noticed I wasn't enjoying my meal, that's probably why she offered to get me something else to eat instead.
  - These are my favorite jeans and I can't fit into them anymore. I must have gained weight.

*The picture Szekeres Gábor showed me last week—he'll show all of us again—when this theme came up, falls far short of any of these categories. I know he was joking, but a lot of students have provided similar depictions in an effort to convince me of my absurdities, and they were not joking. In essence, this is a form of gaslighting, which I hope we can discuss before this class terminates.

Keep in mind that these records are available on the internet, but we'll put into question the accuracy of internet information with a later query and follow-up question down below.

2. Freezing sperm is successful for the first time. 1941: "Genetic engineering" coined. The term "genetic engineering" is coined by a Danish microbiologist. 1942:

- Personal Statements From Victims of Nazi Medical Experiments
- German couple gives birth to the only true descendent of Adolf Hitler (another claim)

3. Hitler's dream of uniting Europe under German/Vatican control:

- Catholics doing Hitler Salute (If a picture is worth a thousand words, what does that make of a thousand pictures?)

This article in reference here states the following: Karl Klauberg was sentenced by the Soviets to 25 years, but only served 7. However, all of my Google searches said that he served 10 years. So, I wanted to find out why the discrepancy. Google refused to provide me insight and gave me the following, which I screen shot instead:

- German Doctor Karl Klauberg convicted by soviet court
- In 1945, near the close of WWII, he was captured by the Red Army and sentenced to 25 years in prison. He was released in 1955
- "Soviets after serving only seven years of his sentence in return for turning over to the KGB his hidden files" – public records on Google show 10 years. The discrepancy is similar to the Covid Virus Propaganda Lies, which I am 100% sure are filled with lies. Thus, inductively, valami nem stimmel. It shouldn't be illegal to be wrong or to provide information that is suspiciously false, but it should be wrong not to be able to share another story, even if it can be, and especially, if it can be proven to be false. Suspicion has it that Petőfi Sándor was buried in Soviet territory; that suggestion has also been scrubbed, not by the authors, but by the propagandists. Very strange, indeed.
  - This Google stance is what is called A CONSPIRACY FACT—NOT FICTION, FACT! I now have no easy way to find out the truth. However, I do know that Google has suppressed Wuhan virus facts and have promoted the propaganda—that CONSPIRACY FACT IS undeniable, which I'll be referencing in a document I'll be releasing to you before the end of this class.
- Regardless, according to the biased Google (We can now label them as hostile to our case, which to review a few facts only.) claims "Some 700 women, most of them Jews, fell victim to Klauberg's experiments."
  - Not bad, 7-10 years for such a swine mass murderer and torturer.

German Doctor Carl Clauberg

- A conference attended by Himmler, Professor Karl Gebhardt, and Richard Glücks (the inspector of concentration camps) entrusted the search for the best method of sterilization—one that would make it possible to sterilize an unlimited number of people in the shortest possible time, and in the simplest way possible—to Professor Carl Clauberg, an authority in the treatment of infertility who worked during the war as head of the department of women's diseases at the hospital in Chorzów (then Königshütte, Germany).

4. Hitler's father, who took the name Hitler, was the illegitimate son of Solomon Rothschild's mistress Anna Maria Schicklgruber.

- Book: Hitler; 1889-1936: Hubris; By IAN KERSHAW; W. W. Norton & Company
  - In 1876, the man who was to become his father changed his name from Alois Schicklgruber to Alois Hitler.
  - The baptismal register left a blank in the space allocated to the baby's father. The name of Hitler's paternal grandfather was not disclosed and, despite much speculation, has remained unknown ever since.
- Study Suggests Adolf Hitler Had Jewish and African Ancestors, according to a recent DNA study by Belgian researchers.
- No clear proof that Hitler's father was a Rothchild, but no evidence to deny that fact either. Regardless, Hitler did have Jewish blood.

5. Gretl Braun was a member of the Social Democratic Party (SPD), whose ideology centered on the principles of Marxism and the interests of the working class and trade unions.

- Very little information on her on the Internet, but I remember this to be true. She was a member of the inner social circle of Adolf Hitler at the Berghof. On 3 June 1944 she married SS-Gruppenführer Hermann Fegelein, who served as Reichsführer-SS Heinrich Himmler's liaison officer on Hitler's staff

6. In the wake of the death of Pope John Paul II, the former German Nazi Joseph Ratzinger was nominated. He took the name of Pope Benedict XVI on April 20, 2005, as Vicar of Rome. Is it a coincidence that this date was the anniversary of Adolf Hitler's birthday?

- It is well-known that Ratzinger was a Nazi. Although some may excuse this dilemma as excusable, I do not. A priest is supposed to be "holier-than-thou", so to speak. Regardless, the internet claims that he was elected Pope on April 19th, not the 20th: On the April 19, 2005, white smoke rises above the roofs of Rome. A new pope has been elected. –This is a one day discrepancy.
  - Regardless, a German, a Pope, and a Nazi, of which he was all three, should be aware of Hitler's birthday and probably try to avoid any type of connection to April 20th.
  - Angela Merkel was in office from 22 November 2005 – 8 December 2021. She became Chancellor only months after the Nazi became a pope. She was also born and grew up in Eastern communist Germany. So the West Germans annex East Germany and hire a strong communist from the X-Soviet enclave, East Germany?
    - The teenage Merkel, like virtually all of her contemporaries, joined the Freie Deutsche Jugend (FDJ), the communist youth organisation. – Inductively True, and not deductively so, only because I'm not an insider, which means that I only have limited knowledge.
    - Merkel didn't enter politics until the age of 35 after the collapse of the Berlin Wall in 1990. - True
    - But it says his pro-regime attitude helped Angela's career - allowing her to study at an elite school, and go on to university, at a time when the children of clergy were routinely refused admission. The teenage Merkel, like virtually all of her contemporaries, joined the Freie Deutsche Jugend (FDJ), the communist youth organisation. – Inductively True, and not deductively so, only because I'm not an insider, which means that I only have limited knowledge.

7. If the Soviet record is true, and the evidence is strong, it opens up some amazing possibilities. The undeniable fact is that Angela Merkel came from obscurity to triumviral power as German Chancellor, President of the European Union, and head of the powerful G-8 economic cartel. – Deductively true
8. Chancellor Angela Merkel admitted to an unusual obsession with the works of composer Richard Wagner, who was a Satanist. Wagner wrote the infamous composition called "Parsifal", which was a favorite of Adolf Hitler as well. –True
  - European World Leaders Attend Satanic Ritual in Switzerland ... (Angela Merkel is reportedly there.)
  - \_With Open Gates\_ BEST VERSION Extended Cinematic 1080p (a video in my collection that I sent to you via my Gmail account). German officials have already declared that Germany will become a Muslim state (and so will Hungary) and that there is no turning back. Angela Merkel is seen tossing the German flag in a manner of disrespect for the flag that I've never seen a dignitary do, like it was a piece of garbag. (at 8.40 – "Islam belongs to Germany," she says.). Although I can't find that clip in the video of her doing the flag thing at this time, unless I watch the whole video again, it's in there. I'm sending it to you guys via my gmail account. There's much in it that you should all watch.
9. Except for the little moustache, Merkel has a striking resemblance to Adolph Hitler. She is also a dead ringer for her mother - Gretl Braun
  - Make of it as you will. – New expression? 😊
10. There is also strong evidence that the official death of Hitler is fake news: Adolf Hitler commits suicide in his underground bunker. There is strong evidence that Hitler actually died peacefully in South America: Grey Wolf: The Escape of Adolf Hitler | Full Documentary Movie, where many Nazis escaped to. The U.S.A. and other countries also had secretive programs to house and learn from Nazi criminals—these are undisputable facts.
